

James E. Abdulla

VICE PRESIDENT

In 2008, James Abdulla started his career with AWK Consulting Engineers, Inc. (AWK) in the Administrative Department and was mentored by his father and president of AWK, Errol Abdulla, PE.

In 2012, he co-founded and became majority owner of AWK Development, Inc. and J & E Real Estate, LP., both of which are engaged in affordable and market rate single and multifamily housing development projects. His first project involved the demolition of a 19-unit townhouse building and construction of six (6) subsidized affordable single-family for sale homes. Additionally, he was instrumental in the establishment of AWK's Orlando, Florida and Livermore, California branch offices and is responsible for the business development activities of those offices.
